

Cloud Garden: A Soft Little Game

Welcome, tiny gardener. 🌸

You drift through the sky, tending floating gardens among the clouds. The world is soft, the air is sweet, and there is nowhere you need to rush.

🌿 How to Play

Read each scene, choose your path, and jump to the matching slide number.

✨ The Rules

There is no winning or losing here — only calm, beauty, and gentle wandering.

🌻 Begin

When you are ready, turn to Slide 2 to start your morning drift.

The Morning Drift

You wake on a fluffy cloud as the sky turns peach and lilac around you. The air is warm and still. Somewhere below, the world is just beginning to stir — but up here, everything is quiet and golden.

A gentle breeze nudges you forward. Two paths shimmer in the morning light...

Choice A

Follow the scent of lavender drifting up from below — soft, sweet, and calling you toward the Whispering Meadow.

→ Go to Slide 3

Choice B

Float toward the distant sound of tinkling bells echoing across the mist — the Moonpetal Pond awaits.

→ Go to Slide 4

The Whispering Meadow

You drift down into rolling lavender hills that sway like a lullaby. Butterflies made of soft light flutter past your fingertips. The air hums with a gentle, wordless song.

Curled beneath a lavender stalk, a sleepy fox blinks up at you with amber eyes. In its paw is a tiny, glowing seed — and it offers it to you with a slow, trusting nod.

Choice A

Plant the seed here in the meadow, where the soil is soft and the light is always kind.

→ Go to Slide 5

Choice B

Return the seed to the fox — a gift given back with warmth and a gentle smile.

→ Go to Slide 6

Moonpetal Pond

You follow the bells to a glassy pond of mint-green water, perfectly still. Lily pads glow faintly beneath the surface, and tiny frogs perch on their edges, singing in soft, overlapping voices like a lullaby choir.

From the center of the pond, a pearl-pink lotus rises slowly, its petals unfurling one by one. It shimmers with quiet magic — and you understand, somehow, that it is offering you a wish.

Choice A

Wish for a garden that never stops blooming — flowers in every season, color without end.

→ Go to Slide 5

Choice B

Wish for a friend to share it with — because beauty is sweeter when someone else can see it too.

→ Go to Slide 6

The Everbloom Garden ✨

Your seed finds the earth, or your wish finds the sky — and something extraordinary begins to grow. Slowly at first, then all at once, a garden blooms around you in every color of the pastel rainbow.

Blush roses and butter daffodils, mint ferns and lavender bells, sky-blue forget-me-nots and cream-white starflowers. They bloom in spring, in summer, in the hush of winter. They never stop.

You lie back among the petals, soft as clouds beneath you, and watch the sky drift by. There is nothing to do. Nowhere to be. Just this.

🌻 Patience makes beauty. The garden grew because you trusted it to.

📄 You have reached an ending. 🌸 Ready to wander again? Return to Slide 1 and begin a new drift through the sky.

The Friendship Garden

Your kindness ripples outward like a stone dropped in still water. The fox trots alongside you, or a new friend drifts down from a neighboring cloud — and suddenly the garden is not just yours anymore.

Together, you plant and tend and laugh softly. You share seeds and stories. You brew tiny cups of chamomile tea on a cloud that smells of honey. As the stars come out one by one, you fill the whole sky with flowers — more than either of you could have grown alone.

The night is warm. The garden glows. And somewhere in the distance, another cloud drifts close, curious and gentle.

 Gardens grow best when shared. The most beautiful things bloom between two hearts.

 You have reached an ending.  Ready to wander again? Return to Slide 1 and begin a new drift through the sky.
