

Discovering Korean Culture

A HERITAGE OF BEAUTY AND HARMONY

A 5,000-year legacy that lives on today

Hangul, the Korean alphabet, created in 1443 by King Sejong

Where tradition
meets modern life

Hanbok

KOREA'S TRADITIONAL DRESS

Graceful attire for special occasions

Jeogori and chima for women, jeogori and baji for men

Colors carry symbolic meaning

Worn during Seollal, Chuseok, weddings, and celebrations

Korean Cuisine and Table Etiquette

Flavors that bring people together

Kimchi, bibimbap, bulgogi, and banchan side dishes

Kimjang: the tradition of making kimchi together

Respect for elders:
they start eating first

Festivals and Holidays

SEASONAL CELEBRATIONS THAT BRING FAMILIES TOGETHER

Seollal brings new beginnings and family traditions

Chuseok honors the harvest and our ancestors

Daeboreum celebrates the first full moon of the year

Arts, Values and Living Traditions

THE ESSENCE OF KOREA TODAY

Traditional arts that tell our stories

Social values that guide daily life

Contemporary culture that connects the world

Timeless traditions, living every day

